Dear Friends, Great day for me as I received the first copies from the National Book Trust of my book -- Processing News. It was was an excruciating experience working with my country's most prestigious publishing house. Will always have the satisfaction of being an author with the NBT and also the happiness of my work reaching the masses particularly the practitioners and students of mass communication. A big thanks to my book's editor Neera Jain for being patient with me and NBT's dynamic director MA Sikander having prodded me to do the project. -- Sidharth Mishra. For Details Click Here
